GET A GREAT EDUCATION AT A PHENOMENAL VALUE!

Find out more about scholarship opportunities at the University of Utah.
DEAR JOHN SMITH,

A college education is critical in today’s economic times and we know that finding ways to afford it can be challenging. While the University of Utah already has the lowest tuition rates among the other Pac-12 schools, there are a variety of scholarships available to new students. When you apply for admission to the University of Utah by the December 1 admissions application priority date, you’ll be automatically considered for Merit scholarships. Apply by Feb 1 to be considered for Diversity scholarships. Visit admissions.utah.edu/apply to get started.

We also make it easy to find other scholarship opportunities at the U. Just visit financialaid.utah.edu/scholarships/freshman.php and explore the variety of scholarships offered by other campus departments. Visit Career Services at careers.utah.edu for other ways to help you afford tuition, like:

- Work-study options
- Internships
- University employment listings

Imagine all the financial resources you need at your fingertips. Apply today, pay attention to deadlines, and contact us with questions.
