Dear John Smith,

Imagine getting an education that truly prepares you for both life and today’s competitive workplace. At the University of Utah — often referred to as just the “U” — you can do just that! The U might be just what you’re looking for! We’ll be in the Los Angeles area on Wednesday, October 15 and invite you and your parents to join us for an informal, fun event to learn about the many great reasons to consider attending Utah’s flagship institution of higher learning for your college education.
