Application Deadlines

Fall Semester: July 1

Spring Semester: November 1

Summer Term: April 1

Domiciliary Tie Deadlines

All applicants are required to take overt steps to prove their intent to make Utah their permanent residence. Students applying under the Undergraduate Policy or Graduate Policy must demonstrate that they have relinquished domiciliary ties (such as driver's license, vehicle registration, and voter registration) held in any other state and established them in Utah by the deadlines listed below, which fall before the Residency Reclassification Application deadlines.

Fall Semester: May 1

Spring Semester: October 1

Summer Term: February 1

Instructions

This application should be completed by students trying to qualify for in-state (resident) tuition based upon the following provisions in the Board of Regents Policy R512 and University of Utah Institutional Policy:

- Graduate Policy, for all graduate students who have started their graduate programs, except those in the Medical or Dental Programs.
- Undergraduate Policy ("One Year Rule"): Twelve continuous months of physical presence in Utah and financial independence. (Incoming graduate students, including those in the Medical and Dental programs, may apply under this policy if they qualify prior to the start of their graduate studies.)
- Marriage to a Utah resident.
- Dependent child with a parent domiciled in Utah for at least twelve continuous months.
- Full-time permanent employment in Utah (including cases where the employment is for a spouse or parent).
- Extenuating circumstances (such as divorce, death of spouse, long-term health care responsibilities of family members, or refugee placed directly in Utah).
- Utah resident away for school, generally for the purpose of attending an out-of-state college/university.
- Utah resident away for government volunteer service or ecclesiastical service.
- Utah resident away for temporary employment.
- Dependent child of Utah resident(s) away on active military duty.
- Utah resident away on active military duty taking only online classes at the University of Utah (including cases where the student is a spouse or dependent child).
- Utah resident away on active military duty and returning to Utah on terminal leave (including cases where the student is a spouse or dependent child).

You must take the following steps to apply for in-state (resident) tuition:

- You must be admitted or permitted to enroll in classes at the University of Utah.
- You must read these instruction pages and the University of Utah Institutional Policy and Board of Regents Policy R512 found on our website at admissions.utah.edu/apply/residency.
- Download, complete, print, and sign this application form. Handwritten signatures are required.
- Submit your application, along with all required documents, by or before the appropriate term deadline. If you fax or mail your materials to us, you should follow up to confirm we received them.
- If you are unable to submit required documentation, you must provide a written statement, including your full name, Student ID#, and an explanation of why you are unable to provide the documentation. You should know that providing the written statement does not waive the required documentation. Failure to provide required documentation can and often does result in denying your request for reclassification.
- Check your UMail account regularly to be sure you receive any notifications for additional documentation in a timely manner.
- Submit additional supporting documentation by the deadline posted in our request notification.
- If you are applying for scholarships for resident students, write “Priority Process for Scholarship Consideration” at the top of your application. We will try to accommodate these requests, but cannot waive requirements to prove eligibility for residency reclassification.
- Late applications submitted during the first week of term-length classes must include a Letter of Appeal explaining the reasons you were not able to apply by the term deadline.
- Late applications submitted after the Friday of the first week of term-length classes will be considered for the next available academic term.

Required Documentation – All Applicants

All students submitting residency reclassification applications must:

- Be a U.S. citizen or have permanent resident, asylum, or refugee status in the U.S. If you are not a U.S. citizen, you must submit verification of your status.
- Provide proof of a Utah driver’s license. If you do not hold a valid driver’s license from any state and you do not drive, you are required to provide a Utah ID card.
 - See Utah Department of Public Safety website for details on applying for a Utah driver’s license or ID card: <http://dld.utah.gov/>.
- Provide proof of Utah car registration if you operate a vehicle in the state of Utah where your name is on the vehicle registration. If you operate a car where the car registration is under your out-of-state parent(s) name, you must provide a copy of the out-of-state car registration.
 - See Utah Division of Motor Vehicles website for details on registering a vehicle in Utah: <http://dmv.utah.gov/>.
- Provide proof of Utah voter registration. Provide a copy of your registration card or a letter from the County Clerk’s Office verifying the date you registered. This requirement is not applicable to foreign nationals or resident aliens.
 - If you live in Salt Lake County, see the County Clerk’s website at <http://clerk.slco.org> for details on how to register to vote in Utah.

Students may be required to submit proof of additional domiciliary ties, such as:

- Proof of Utah employment, including part-time employment.
- Copy of a Utah State Income Tax Return filed as a part-year or full-year Utah resident.
- Copy of a lease/rental agreement in Utah for at least twelve months.
- Copies of utility bills in your name for at least twelve months.

Other Required Documentation

In addition to the documentation required for all applicants described above, applicants must submit documentation demonstrating that they qualify either under the general rule of the law or an exception. These instructions describe documentation required for each residency provision listed below.

Graduate Policy, for all graduate students who have started their graduate programs, except those in the Medical or Dental Programs:

- University of Utah transcript verifying completion of 40 semester credit hours of graduate level course work.
- Evidence that you relinquished domiciliary ties (such as driver's license, vehicle registration, and voter registration) held in any other state and established them in Utah by the domiciliary tie deadline.
- Verification of financial independence showing that you are not claimed as a dependent on the federal tax return of any person who is not a resident of Utah.
 - If you are single and 23 years of age or younger, provide a copy of the first two pages of your federal tax return (Form 1040) for the tax year prior to the academic year for which you wish to qualify for resident student status.
 - If you did not file a federal return, provide a copy of your parent(s) federal tax return(s) for the tax year prior to the academic year for which you wish to qualify for resident tuition.
- Proof of physical presence in Utah for at least the 12 continuous months immediately prior to the first day of class for the academic term you wish to be considered a resident student.

Acceptable documents include:

- A transcript verifying you were enrolled in on-campus, term-length classes at a Utah college or university. Note: transcripts only can be used to verify dates classes were in session.
- Copies of pay stubs for the required time period or a letter from a Utah employer verifying physical presence for work inside the state of Utah (letter must be on company letterhead, dated, include from and to dates of employment and be signed by someone authorized to verify your employment).

The following documents are not sufficient proof of physical presence: utility bills, W-2 forms, rental agreements, or letters from friends. The burden of proof is on the applicant to provide written verification of their physical presence for the required twelve continuous months.

Undergraduate Policy (“One Year Rule”): Twelve continuous months of physical presence in Utah and financial independence. (Incoming graduate students, including those in the Medical and Dental programs, may apply under this policy if they qualify prior to the start of their graduate studies.):

- Evidence that you relinquished domiciliary ties (such as driver's license, vehicle registration, and voter registration) held in any other state and established them in Utah by the domiciliary tie deadline.
- Verification of financial independence showing that you are not claimed as a dependent on the federal tax return of any person who is not a resident of Utah.
 - If you are single and 23 years of age or younger, provide a copy of the first two pages of your federal tax return (Form 1040) for the tax year prior to the academic year for which you wish to qualify for resident student status.
 - If you did not file a federal return, provide a copy of your parent(s) federal tax return(s) for the tax year prior to the academic year for which you wish to qualify for resident tuition.
- Proof of physical presence in Utah for at least the 12 continuous months immediately prior to the first day of class for the academic term you wish to be considered a resident student.

Acceptable documents include:

- A transcript verifying you were enrolled in on-campus, term-length classes at a Utah college or university. Note: transcripts only can be used to verify dates classes were in session.
- Copies of pay stubs for the required time period or a letter from a Utah employer verifying physical presence for work inside the state of Utah (letter must be on company letterhead, dated, include from and to dates of employment and be signed by someone authorized to verify your employment).

The following documents are not sufficient proof of physical presence: utility bills, W-2 forms, rental agreements, or letters from friends. The burden of proof is on the applicant to provide written verification of their physical presence for the required twelve continuous months.

Marriage to a Utah resident:

- Copy of marriage certificate verifying the date of the marriage.
- Copy of Utah spouse's Utah state income tax return for the tax year prior to the year of the marriage. If the spouse did not file a state tax return because his/her parent(s) claimed the individual as a tax dependent, provide a copy of the spouse's parent(s) federal and state tax return for the tax year prior to the year of your marriage.
- Utah spouse's Utah driver's license.
- If you are a foreign national, you must provide proof of your permanent resident, asylum, or refugee status.

Dependent child with a parent domiciled in Utah for at least twelve continuous months:

- Copy of federal tax return showing you as a tax dependent of one of your parents. (Does not need to be the Utah parent.)
- Copy of most recent Utah state tax return for the Utah parent.
- Copy of Utah driver's license for the Utah parent.
- Copy of Utah vehicle registration for the Utah parent.

The applicant is required to establish their own domiciliary ties once he/she makes the move to Utah in order to meet other Utah laws that govern driving in the state or operating a vehicle in the state of Utah, etc.

Full-time permanent employment in Utah (including cases where the employment is for a spouse or parent):

- Letter, on company letterhead, from the Utah employer, verifying the full-time employment, including hire date and verification of employer-requested job transfer or recruitment.
- If you are single and 23 years of age or younger, you must provide proof that you were not claimed as a tax dependent on your out-of-state parent(s) most recent federal tax return.
- For parent(s) employment, you must provide a copy of your parent's most recent federal tax return verifying you were claimed as a dependent. If your parents did not claim you as a tax dependent, provide a written statement from your parent(s) explaining what level of support they will provide to you upon your move to Utah.
- For parent(s) retirement, provide verification of retirement and a written explanation from your parent(s) verifying the reason for their move to Utah. Also, provide a copy of your parent(s) most recent federal tax return verifying you were claimed as a dependent. If your parents did not claim you as a tax dependent, provide a written statement from your parent(s) explaining what level of support they will provide to you upon your move to Utah.

Extenuating circumstances (such as divorce, death of spouse, long-term health care responsibilities of family members, or refugee placed directly in Utah):

- Documentation of the extenuating circumstance. (Specific circumstances that qualify are listed in R512, Determination of Resident Status.) All relevant evidence concerning the motivation for the move shall be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Refugees who were placed directly in Utah should submit proof of their refugee status (INS Document Number I-94) and written confirmation from the agency that assisted in their move to Utah, such as the International Rescue Committee or Catholic Community Services of Utah.

Utah resident away for school, generally for the purpose of attending an out-of-state college/university:

- Verification of your residency status at the out-of-state school and payment of non-resident tuition.
- A copy of your most recent Utah state tax return. If you were required to complete Form TC40-B, provide a copy of it.
- If you did not file a tax return and you are a tax dependent of Utah parents, provide a copy of your parent(s) most recent federal and state tax returns.

Utah resident away for government volunteer service or ecclesiastical service:

- Letter from appropriate organization verifying your dates of service. (Must include the beginning and end dates.)
- A copy of your most recent Utah state tax return.
- If you did not file a tax return and you are a tax dependent of Utah parents, provide a copy of your parent(s) most recent federal and state tax returns.

Utah resident away for temporary employment:

- Letter from the applicant explaining the nature of the temporary employment and reason for doing this employment out of Utah. (Based on your explanation, be aware that we may ask for additional documentation.)
- Copy of all state tax returns filed during the temporary absence from Utah. If you filed Form TC40-B with a Utah state tax return, include a copy of the TC40-B.

Dependent child of Utah resident(s) away on active military duty:

- A copy of the military service member's most recent Utah state income tax return.
- A copy of the military service member's most recent federal income tax return verifying the child was claimed as a tax dependent.
- A copy of the military service member's Utah driver's license.
- A copy of the military service member's military identification card.
- A copy of the child's military privilege card.

The applicant is required to establish his/her own domiciliary ties once he/she makes the move to Utah in order to meet other Utah laws that govern driving in the state or operating a vehicle in the state of Utah, etc.

Utah resident away on active military duty taking only online classes at the University of Utah (including cases where the student is a spouse or dependent child):

- A copy of the military service member's most recent Utah state income tax return.
- A copy of the military service member's Utah driver's license.
- A copy of the military service member's military identification card.
- A copy of the military service member's most recent military orders.
- If applicant is a dependent child or spouse, a copy of the applicant's military privilege card.
- If applicant is a dependent child, a copy of the military service member's most recent federal tax return verifying they claimed the applicant.

Utah resident away on active military duty and returning to Utah on terminal leave (including cases where the student is a spouse or dependent child):

- A copy of the military service member's most recent Utah state income tax return.
- A copy of the military service member's Utah driver's license.
- A copy of the military service member's military identification card.
- A copy of the military service member's most recent military orders.
- If applicant is a dependent child or spouse, a copy of the applicant's military privilege card.
- If applicant is a dependent child, a copy of the military service member's most recent federal tax return verifying they claimed the applicant.
