Step One: IMAGINE.

Imagine discovering how to harness hydrogen fuel from the sun to create solar energy, or finding a long lost violin concerto and then performing it for the first time in over 100 years. Imagine that a day at college could consist of skiing in the morning and unlocking the secrets of the human genome in the afternoon. All these things and more are possible at a place we call Imagine U—The University of Utah.

Step Two: DO.

You’ve imagined achieving great things your entire life. The University of Utah has the tools and resources you need to make those dreams a reality. The U has:

• Rich, creative and intellectual traditions.
• Over 500 student groups and organizations including the Associated Students of the University of Utah (ASUU), the Mighty Utah Student Section (MUSS), and Greek life.
• Research opportunities from day one.
• World class on-campus housing.
• Pac-12 athletic events and teams.
• An amazing location close to shopping, arts and abundant recreation.

The University of Utah has so much to offer to help you achieve everything you’ve imagined for yourself academically and personally. Start your journey by completing your My U Page and then come visit the U and experience first hand the exciting opportunities that await you. Start at admissions.utah.edu
What makes the University of Utah different?

The University of Utah is located in the beautiful Mountain West region of the United States, surrounded by some of the best hiking, biking, and skiing you’ll ever experience; and close to amazing national parks and historic sites. As if that weren’t enough, you will receive an education from one of the top universities in the world that thrives on cutting-edge research and an entrepreneurial spirit. A university whose faculty are leaders and innovators in their fields. So, what makes the U different?

• Dozens of top-ranked academic programs including the #1 Entertainment Arts & Engineering program*, #2 Physicians Assistant program‡, and #12 Environmental Law program‡ in the country
• One Nobel Laureate and notable alumni like Ed Catmull, co-founder of Pixar; Laurel Thatcher Ulrich, Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist; Robert Jarvik, inventor of the artificial heart; and so many more.
• Hundreds of art shows, concerts, film screenings, ballet and theatre performances.
• Proud member of the Pac-12.
• World-class shopping malls, restaurants, and a vibrant nightlife.
• Seven ski resorts within 30 minutes of campus, and more than a dozen throughout the state.
• Five world-renowned national parks within a few hours drive.

And if that wasn’t enough, Forbes magazine recently named Salt Lake City as one of the best cities for businesses and careers, and Utah is constantly ranked as one of the best places to live in the United States. Come and visit and you’ll see why the U is the perfect place to pursue your interests and prepare yourself for a successful future.

All costs are subject to change without notice and are expected to increase annually. Non-Resident total includes an additional estimated average travel component of $360 per semester. Resident and Non-Resident totals include an average estimated loan fee cost of $39 per semester. Loan fees will vary. Miscellaneous costs include things like medical expenses, clothing, laundry, telephone and other utilities, etc. The housing rate is based on the reported costs for all undergraduates living on campus. Housing costs for freshmen will likely be lower, however estimated costs vary based on room type and meal plan selection.

Housing

There’s nothing like experiencing the University of Utah by living on campus! The modern, suite style residence halls and apartments served as the Athletes Village during the 2002 Winter Olympics, and are full of comforts you do not find on other campuses. The convenience and sense of community that come from living on campus make for a truly great college experience.

One of the best ways for students to feel like part of the University is to connect with a group of students with similar academic pursuits or interests. Living Learning Communities (LLC) enhance students’ campus experience, maximize retention and academic success, and create a sense of belonging for students both inside and outside the classroom. To learn about the various educational, social, and developmental experiences available through LLC, visit housing.utah.edu.
