Step One: IMAGINE.

Imagine discovering how to harness hydrogen fuel from the sun into solar energy, or finding a long lost violin concerto and then performing it for the first time in over 100 years. Imagine that a day at college could consist of skiing in the morning and unlocking the secrets of the human genome in the afternoon. All these things and more are possible at a place we call Imagine U—The University of Utah.

Step Two: DO.

You’ve imagined achieving great things your entire life. The University of Utah has the tools and resources you need to make those dreams a reality. The U has:

- Rich, creative and intellectual traditions
- Over 500 student groups and organizations including Greeks, the Associated Students of the University of Utah (ASUU), and the Mighty Utah Student Section (MUSS)
- Research opportunities from day one
- Job placement resources through Career Services - the top 25 employers of 2014 U graduates include Amazon, Ernst & Young, Chevron, Goldman Sachs, Deloitte, and Google
- Pac-12 athletic events and teams

Transferring to the U is an exciting step toward achieving your dreams. In this booklet, you’ll find resources to help make your transfer to the U as seamless as possible. You can find additional resources and information at admissions.utah.edu/apply/undergraduate/transfer/index.php.

Transfer Admissions Criteria

The admissions process at the University of Utah promotes student success by assessing student preparedness and academic potential in the context of each applicant's personal experience. Transfer applicants will be considered for admission after meeting the following requirements:

- Rigorous coursework from a regionally accredited college or university.
- Previous graduation from an accredited high school or the equivalent (e.g. GED).
- A cumulative GPA of 2.6 or higher. Students who have an associate of arts or an associate of science degree from a regionally accredited institution may be admitted with a 2.35 GPA or higher.

Additional Guidelines

- Applicants admitted with in-progress transcripts are subject to the review of a final college or university transcript.
- Applicants who have fewer than 30 semester hours completed at the time of application are also required to submit an official high school transcript and official ACT/SAT test scores using school code 4274 for ACT and 4853 for SAT.
- We understand that every student faces various challenges, and your situation may be unique. Don’t hesitate to contact the Office of Admissions if you have questions.

Transfer Application Process

- Visit campus: admissions.utah.edu/visit
- Apply for admission by the priority application deadline to be automatically considered for merit and need-based scholarships. Apply by the final deadline to avoid paying the late application processing fee. Fill out the application at admissions.utah.edu/apply. Be sure to check all deadline dates.
- Pay the non-refundable application fee of $45.
- Submit official transcripts from every university or college attended to the Office of Admissions.
- Track your application at admissions.utah.edu/status. Final admission decisions will be mailed.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by the March 1 FAFSA Priority Deadline to be considered for merit and need-based scholarships, as well as a larger number of financial aid programs at financialaid.utah.edu.
- Apply at housing.utah.edu when on-campus housing applications become available to newly admitted students.
- Pay the $150 Enrollment Deposit.
- Register to attend a New Student Orientation, required for all transfer students, at orientation.utah.edu and attend a session beginning in the Spring. Schedule an appointment with an academic advisor prior to your orientation date. Students must pay the $150 Enrollment Deposit before they can register to attend an Orientation.

Admissions Counselors
Admissions Counselors help you understand the application and admissions process, provide scholarship and financial aid information, and clarify residency requirements. The counselors can also tell you more about campus organizations, programs, and arrange a tour of campus. Visit admissions.utah.edu/contact for a list of our Admissions Counselors or call 801-581-8761.

Transfer Center at University College
The Transfer Center at University College is here to answer your questions about degree completion, major and minors, help map out your transition to the U, and to help students who are undecided. You can begin working with the Transfer Center early on to ensure you maximize your time in preparation for starting at the U. Visit transfer.utah.edu.

Transfer LEAP Program
Transfer LEAP is a one semester program designed to help integrate transfer students into the U, while also fulfilling the international general education requirement (IR). This is an excellent program for completing general education requirements. Learn more at leap.utah.edu/docs/program-flyers-14-15/Transfer.pdf.

Transfer Credit
Transfer credit is typically posted 4-6 weeks after a transfer student has been admitted. Transfer credit earned at regionally accredited colleges or universities is normally accepted if the work is parallel in nature to courses offered at the University of Utah. Students attending another Utah university or college may see how their courses transfer by visiting our Getting Ready Guides at admissions.utah.edu/apply/undergraduate/transfer/transfer-guide.php.

Veterans and Returning Military
The University of Utah is pleased to welcome brave military servicemen and women to our student body. We have resources to assist veterans and returning military with the details of benefits through Veterans Services at registrar.utah.edu/veteran as well as a Veterans Support Center at veteranscenter.utah.edu to help with the transition to campus life. Learn more at admissions.utah.edu/apply/veterans.

There are several exceptions regarding residency for veterans, including:
• an individual who is currently serving on active duty assigned in Utah
• an individual who is in the reserves or a member of the Utah National Guard
• an immediate family member of a military service member assigned in Utah

For a full list and to learn more, visit admissions.utah.edu/apply/residency/institutional_policy.php.

In addition, credit may be awarded for certain military service. You must meet with an advisor in University College before requesting credit for military training. Learn more at admissions.utah.edu/apply/veterans/index.php.

Transfer Student Orientation
All admitted transfer students must attend a mandatory new student orientation, where they learn more about campus life, degree and graduation requirements, and meet with an academic advisor to register for courses. In addition, the Office of Orientation sponsors Transfer Tuesdays, Tau Sigma, Transfer Campus Life Mentors, and the Transfer Newsletter. Learn more by visiting orientation.utah.edu.

Housing
Are you interested in the full university experience? Single, married, senior or graduate student—they all call the U campus “home.” Learn about options for living on or near campus at housingoptions.utah.edu.

Child Care Services
The University has numerous child care options including daycare, preschool, kindergarten, and nanny services. The Child Care Coordinating Office has all the resources you need to find quality child care on or off campus. For more information, visit childcare.utah.edu.
Diverse Transfer Student Program

The Diverse Transfer Student Program in the Office for Student Equity and Diversity in the student involvement wing of the Union building seeks to help you bridge your experience at your former college to the University of Utah. By supporting you through the admissions process and providing you important academic and community resources, the Diverse Transfer Student program will help you successfully reach your academic goals while at the U. Diverse Transfer Student resources include:

- Individual academic advising
- Special course offering for underrepresented transfer students
- Workshops and transfer mentor program

Visit diversity.utah.edu/students/transfer to learn more.

School of Business Opportunity Scholars Program

The Opportunity Scholars Program at the David Eccles School of Business contributes to the educational experience by introducing students with diverse experiences to a collaborative environment. To be eligible for the Opportunity Scholars Program, students must maintain a GPA greater than 3.0 and be a first generation or under-represented student, or demonstrate financial need. The program provides:

- financial assistance, mentors, internships, service learning projects and networking opportunities
- support for students as they become community leaders
