What Can We Do For You?

Office of Admissions
College and Department Training
2014
Agenda

• Discussion of marketing and communicating with prospective students and other key influencers
• Services we can provide
• How to request communications
• Odds & Ends
• Wrap Up & Questions
Changing landscape

• Enhanced communication tools

• Changes in the recruitment and admissions processes and activities
  – No longer rolling admissions – set admission notification dates
  – Ways for students to let us know their intentions
  – Increased activities to build our prospect pool

• Significant increase in communications from the Office of Admissions and other areas across campus
Key goals for communicating

• The right people get the right message/information at the right time

• Consistency across all communications

• Avoid spamming and duplicating messages
A centralized approach to communicating with prospective students and other key influencers
Office of Admissions will not release to outside entities mail/email lists of prospective students or other key influencers. Rather we will offer our services to outside entities to aid them with their communication efforts.

Dear Holly,

We are looking for amazing students like you to join the University of Utah's Pre-Law LEAP Program! Pre-Law LEAP, which is an in-depth, year-long program for first-year law school students, offers a unique opportunity to gain valuable experience and skills.

Making the transition from high school to college can be a challenge. Pre-Law LEAP offers a supportive environment that helps students succeed. In addition to a peer advisor, responsive professors, and library skill sessions, we also provide academic advising, financial aid, scholarship, and more.

Additional information about the Pre-Law LEAP Program, as well as application materials, is available online.

If you have any questions about our program, the application, or the University of Utah in general, please don't hesitate to contact me. I am happy to assist you and look forward to hearing from you soon!

Best wishes,

Ann Hoger, PhD
Professor (Retired)

Mechanical Engineering Admission Application Required - Appl...

Apply before orientation

Dear HOLLY,

A quick reminder—students who receive a summer orientation without first submitting admission to the Mechanical Engineering program will not be able to register for Mechanical Engineering classes. If you have not already completed the online MSE admission application, we strongly encourage you to submit your application as soon as possible. Thank you if you have already submitted your application.

Admission to the program is based on a collection of factors such as high school GPA, standardized test scores, English proficiency scores, AP credits, cumulative post-secondary GPA, including coursework prior to Utah 1210/1210 Calculus I is required for acceptance. Students are eligible to enroll in Calculus I in Fall 2020 and the following fall to apply for admission, but may start with the MSE academic advisor as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, please contact one of our undergraduate academic advisors. Ronnie Ogden (ogden.ronnie@usu.edu) will work with students with Last Names A-L and Mark May (may.mark@usu.edu) will work with students with Last Names M-Z. We look forward to reviewing your admission application.

Sincerely,

Dr. Debra J. Macdonald, PhD
Director of Undergraduate Studies
Department of Mechanical Engineering
Dear Holly,

The University of Utah Washington, DC Alumni Chapter is pleased to invite you to join us for a special U at the Zoo event tomorrow, June 14. We would love for you to join us for a "day at the zoo" event tomorrow beginning at 12:00 pm at the National Zoo Precinct Pavilion.

In addition, we're pleased to announce the Washington, DC Alumni Chapter Scholarship is available to a student who has graduated from a Washington, DC high school and will be a student at the University of Utah in the Fall 2014 semester. A total of $500 will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence, need, and service to the community. The scholarship application is due by [date].

Learn more and [download the application here.]

Sincerely,
Kira Alyah

You forward this message on 6/13/14, 2:33 PM.

Dear Holly,

Experience the convenience, community and all that the U has to offer by living on campus this fall! If you can't choose where you'll be living, it's better to consider living on campus—apart from being more affordable and we'd love to have you. When you choose a residence hall, your college experience is right outside your door—you are close to classes, friends, food and a ton of other things to do. Plus students who live on campus have higher GPAs and graduation rates compared to others who don't. Maximize your experience at the University of Utah and apply for on-campus housing today.

To learn more and secure your spot on campus this fall, please visit our website.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our office via telephone at 801-581-2002 or via email at housing@utah.edu.

Sincerely,
Housing & Residential Education at the University of Utah
Dear Holly,

Our records show you have completed the online application to the University of Utah Asia Campus, but that you are missing the accompanying documentation required for us to begin reviewing your application.

To see what you're missing, simply track your application online. Then, submit the missing document(s) as soon as possible.

Documents that require mailing should be sent to:

Office of Admissions
201 South 1460 East
Room 250 S
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

Don't delay! We have extended the July 1 application deadline to allow you time to submit all required documents for admission this fall.

If you have any questions, please contact our International Admissions team at lao@sa.utah.edu or (801) 581-8761.

Sincerely,

Office of Admissions

What CAN’T We Do?

• Send attachments
• Turn an email around in one day
• Provide lists of student contact info
• Communicate with current students
• Send inappropriate, unsanctioned, or non-University material
• SPAM students
Timing

• Allow one week for initial evaluation
• Factor in what we’re doing for you
  – Graphic design
  – Editing vs. drafting
• Fit into the overall OA schedule
• Plan 3 weeks to be safe
Best Practices

- Have only one (two, tops) CTA per email
- Keep emails to a reasonable length
- Don’t include too many URL’s, etc.
- Target students specifically and in a timely manner
- Choose the best medium for your message
- Prepare your office

Salt Lake City

Stunning setting. Great place of life. A vibrant arts scene. Incredible outdoor recreation in every direction. Salt Lake City has it all and more. Downtown is just five minutes from the University of Utah by car, mass transit, or bike. Utah's capital has consistently ranked among the nation's most livable cities and best college towns.

From small beginnings, Salt Lake has grown into an impressively cosmopolitan and diverse place to live. Over 1 million residents live in the valley and enjoy the vibrant culture and downtown city center, distinctive neighborhoods, and reasonable cost of living. Between the farmers markets, festivals and concerts, sporting events, bustling restaurants, active social scene, and thriving arts community, the city offers something for everyone.

• Print variable data to personalize your printed mailing piece
• We have the non-profit permit to mail at a lower rate
PROCESS

• Call and set up meeting to go over job or email specs

• Submit order form along with final artwork

• Email estimate once we have the completed order form

• Proof, print, bind & mail
IMPORTANT INFO

• The time frame for each job begins when the final proof is signed off

• Contact us before preparing your pieces for mailing to confirm that current USPS regulations are being met

• Postcards printed on Digital Press that will be mailed, should be UV coated to prevent scratching

• The post office can keep non-profit mail up to 10 days in lieu of first class mail

• #10 envelope mail first class .49 each—non-profit .173

• Variable data is: elements such as text, graphics and images may be changed from one printed piece to the next

• Keep it on campus—helps our community and sustainability

Comm plan development tips

• What do you want to communicate and when do you want to do it?
  – Think about key dates and events

• Who is your target audience?
  – Remember that printed pieces sent to students will be read by others
  – Don’t forget parents
Comm plan development tips

• What medium will you use?
  – Combination works best – don’t just rely on email
  – Have some initial and follow up comms

• What are your CTAs?
  – Every communication should request some type of action to be taken by the recipient
