The screenshot shows the website for the University of Utah's Academic Advising Center. The header features the university's logo and a navigation menu with links to Advising, Map, Majors, Standards, Transfer, Returning, Preprofessional Advising, and About. Below the header, the page title is "ACADEMIC ADVISING CENTER". A breadcrumb trail indicates the user is on the "Quick Look" page. The main heading is "Quick Look - Majors, Minors, & Certificates", followed by a subheading: "Get a quick view of majors, minors and certificates offered at the University of Utah." Below this, there are filter buttons for "A-Z", "BY INTEREST", and "BY COLLEGE". Further down, a row of checkboxes allows users to filter by "Major", "BA", "BS", "BFA/BMUS", "BSW", "Honors", "Minor", and "Certificate". The "All" filter is currently selected. At the bottom, there are four image thumbnails: a calculator and pen, a hand holding a tablet with a bar chart, a jet airplane in flight, and a street sign for "LENOX AV" and "MALCOLM X BLVD".

Course description This course introduces students to the concept of culture as a framework for understanding similarities and differences in behavior and values in human societies from all parts of the world. The intersections and complexity of historical, social, political, economic and religious structures and forces in cultures are examined. Most case studies are from non-Western cultures in South America, Africa and Oceania, but examples and links to cultural and social-economic diversity within the United States are also integral to the course. Emphasis is placed on understanding how culture patterns human thought and feelings about the natural environment, social relations, history and “others”. An underlying theme is that anthropological knowledge can be used to solve contemporary local and global issues.

The course aim to:

1. Provide students with an in-depth study of the social, political, economic and religious systems of selected cultures from different parts of the world so as to make the “strange” so familiar that the familiar seems strange by comparison.
2. Introduce students to the concepts, theories and methods of cultural anthropology
3. Enhance the cultural literacy (i.e., framework for understanding any culture) of students

CLASS scheduling

how to choose classes

Take a class for a future major

For example: take SOC 1010: Intro to Sociology if you want to major in sociology

Take a class to explore a topic

For example: take HEDU 1010: Health Lifestyles to explore health

Take a foundational course like math or writing

For example: take WRTG 1010: Intro to Writing college courses

are an opportunity course details...

classes for one semester

College classes are for one semester only —a semester is 15 weeks.

credit hours

Classes are between 1 - 5 credit hours. Majority of classes are 3 credits.

homework

3 credit class x 2-3 hours = 6-9 hours of study/prep time outside of class start with intro level classes only take lower-division classes, 1000+ level and 2000+ level courses academic standing...

HSUP students must maintain a 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA.

2.0 = good standing

If a student's GPA falls below a 2.0 in HSUP courses, they will be placed on probation and dismissed from the program.

U of U Grading System

Letter Grade	Grade Points
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7

1.7 = C- grade in a course

D+	1.3
D	1.0
E	0.0

time management

- College classes require different study habits than high school classes
- 2 hours of study for every 1 hour in class, maybe more! (i.e. CHEM)
- Get a planner (online or printed), and set aside time to study for every class
- Good habits = good grades
